THE Eighteenth Edition of the “Alphabetical Arrangement” which is now presented brings down the appointments of the Conference to 1896. In the preface to the last Edition there was an account of the previous Editions. The first list was prepared by John Pawson, the third president after the death of Wesley. Mr. Pawson was elected president in 1793, and in 1795 he published, in a 12mo book of twenty-four pages, “A Chronological Catalogue of all the Travelling Preachers in the Methodist Connexion ; with an Address by Dr. Coke.” Since the publication of the last Edition Mr. George Stampe, of Grimsby, has sent, for my perusal, from his remarkable collection of Methodist antiquities, a copy of this rare document. It is an alphabetical list of the itinerant preachers, with the date when each was called into the work ; and in this list of ancient worthies there are many historic names. The document is so very rare that it ought to be reproduced in a permanent form, and, the necessary consent having been obtained, it is reprinted below. It cannot fail to be read with considerable interest.

To make the history complete the substance of the preface to the last Edition is here repeated :—

In 1813 William Myles published his “Chronological History of the People called Methodists.” This valuable book contains a complete list of the chapels. The “Rounds,” as the circuits were then called, extended over immense tracts of country, so the chapels are arranged in the order of the several counties. The total number in the United Kingdom and the Channel Islands was 1,574, of which 145 were in Ireland, 26 in Scotland, and 23 in the Isle of Man. The "First Race of Methodist Preachers," as he calls them, takes in the period from 1739, when the itinerancy began, to 1765. The list includes 220 names. The "Second Race of Preachers" includes 470 who entered the itinerant ranks from 1766 to 1790. The name of Francis Asbury is the second on this list, but those Preachers who had been "raised up" in the United States of America are not included. The "Third Race" includes the names of 866 Preachers who were called out to supply the wants of the Connexion in twenty-one years, from 1791 to 1812. Mr. Myles observes that "their being so often absent from their families, together with their incessant labours, occasioned many of them to desist from travelling." The volume concludes with an account of Kingswood School, and the names of all the masters.

The Rev. William Hill published, in 1819, his first "Alphabetical Arrangement of the Wesleyan Methodist Preachers in Great Britain, and in the Distant Parts of the Globe, with a View of all the Circuits and Stations from the Commencement of their Itinerancy." It was printed in Bradford by T. Inkersley, and the profits were to be given to the "Kingswood and Woodhouse Grove Schools." There were then 765 names of preachers in the itinerant work. At the end is a separate list of the Supernumeraries, the number being fifty-three. The majority of the Preachers stayed only one year in their circuits; but in some instances the term was extended to two, and in special cases to three years. The original purpose was evidently to show where each Minister had been stationed, rather than the length of time he had remained in each circuit.

The Second Edition was published in 1824. The work was commenced in the first instance, Mr. Hill says, with a sincere design to gratify his brethren the Preachers, and that, to serve them more extensively, he has transferred the copyright to the Book Committee. In this Edition the list of Supernumeraries disappears, and in its place is given the record of 432 "Ministers who had died in the work." It may be mentioned in this connexion that the death roll now contains 3,013 names, of which 187 have been added since the publication of the last Edition.

Mr. Hill published five editions of his "Alphabetical Arrangement"; the fifth appeared in 1841. His name has thus become so associated with the work that it was then known, and it has continued to be known, as "Hill's Arrangement." The work of revision was then undertaken by the Rev. John P. Haswell. The Sixth Edition, which was the first Mr. Haswell edited, appeared in 1847, and the Tenth in 1866. The work was next undertaken by the Rev. Marmaduke C. Osborn, who conducted four Editions through the press. The responsibility of the last four Editions has been with the present Editor.

Great care has been taken to guard against inaccuracy or omission; but in a work in which there are so many figures and so much detail it is nearly impossible to discover every error. I shall be glad to be informed of mistakes or omissions, so that they may be corrected in the next Edition.

AN ADDRESS TO THE PREACHERS,

AN
PREACHERS, &c.

THE committee for the regulation of our literary affairs, appointed by the last London Conference, were of opinion, that a volume containing the whole of the minutes of our conferences, from the first meeting to the last, would be very acceptable to the Preachers and People. When they delivered in their general report to the Conference, and this particular was mentioned, universal approbation was manifested. But nothing of the kind has yet been printed.

I therefore beg leave to present to the preachers and members of our society, this little tract ; for to such only it will be entertaining and profitable. For we love each other : and every thing which tends to bring to our remembrance the faithful labours of those those men, who have been made by divine grace a blessing to us, has at the same time a tendency to increase our mutual love.

The following Chronological Catalogue will, I trust, be attended with various uses. First, It will be exceedingly helpful for the delegates of the districts to draw up the rough plan for the Stations of the preachers. Secondly, It will be equally so for the whole Conference, in enabling them to correct and complete that plan. Thirdly, As I before intimated, it will serve to keep up the remembrance and affection of the people towards their beloved pastors.

An account is given of the supernumerary and superannuated preachers, which will serve as a direction in the management of the preacher's fund. For the same reason, the names of some deceased preachers are preserved, for the sake of their widows.

They are arranged alphabetically, and proper intervals allowed at the end of each letter, in order that the purchasers may from year to year insert all the new preachers that shall be received upon trial. By this means, this little treatise may serve as a complete directory for a great many years to come, in respect of the objects it has in view. For the same purpose it is printed on letter-paper, which will indeed advance the price, as will also the new tax upon paper, the advance in printing, carriage, &c. However, my very

very respected friend Mr. Pawson, who drew up this Chronological Catalogue, advises, that if any pecuniary advantage be drawn from the sale of this tract, it may be added to the subscription for the foreign missions among the heathen: and I have engaged sacredly to apply it for that purpose.

In short, I trust this little publication may prove a mite thrown into the sacred treasury, to increase the love of preachers and people towards each other. O why should we divide! Have we not enemies enow without being enemies to each other? Let us meet in love. Let us lie at each other's feet, sensible of the honour which the Lord has conferred upon us, by using us as principal instruments in the great revival which he has begun, and carried on upon the earth. To him be ascribed the glory!

O brethren, shall our bright candle be extinguished, and leave a noisome smell behind it? Shall we set district against district, circuit against circuit, society against society, husbands against their wives, children against their parents, and be the authors of innumerable other evils, which would necessarily follow a division? God forbid! Come then, let us join our hands and hearts together in the great cause of the conversion of a world. Let us agree to disagree in every immaterial circumstance, circumstance, and lend our whole strength to bring immortal souls to our adorable Redeemer. Then shall we be the people whom he will delight to honour. He will dwell in us and among us; he will make us terrible like an army with banners; and jointly with his people who serve him zealously under other denominations, and perhaps more extensively than them all, will make us chief instruments in hastening and completing his universal reign. Even so, Lord Jesus, Amen.

T. COKE.
